What is this product?

Type: iShares Physical Gold ETC (the "ETC") is a series of secured debt securities issued by iShares Physical Metals public limited company (the "Company") that are linked to physical gold. The ETC securities are listed on the London Stock Exchange, are structured as debt securities and are not units in a collective investment scheme.

Term: The ETC does not have a fixed term of existence, or maturity period, but in certain circumstances an early redemption may occur upon election by the Company or (in the case of a default by the Company) by its trustee, State Street Custodial Services (Ireland) Limited, subject to prior written notice if: (a) the Company exercises its call option at any time by giving 10 days' notice that it is redeeming the ETC securities; (b) certain legal or regulatory changes occur in relation to the Company; (c) the Company is, or there is a substantial likelihood that it will be, required to make a payment in respect of, register for or account for VAT; (d) certain key service providers of the Company resign or their appointment is terminated and no successor has been appointed within 60 days; (e) the Company has defaulted for more than 14 days in a payment or delivery in respect of the ETC securities; (f) the Company does not perform or comply with a material obligation under the terms of the ETC securities or the security deed or trust deed relating to the ETC securities, after the expiry of the relevant grace period; or (g) the Company is subject to liquidation.

Objectives

- The ETC securities aim to provide investment exposure to physical gold and are valued based on the London Bullion Market Association (LBMA) gold price.
- The Company holds physical gold. Each ETC security has a metal entitlement ("Metal Entitlement", which is the amount of physical gold backing the ETC security) and its daily value is calculated based on its daily Metal Entitlement. The daily Metal Entitlement can be found on www.ishares.com.
- The ETC securities are listed and traded on the London Stock Exchange. In normal circumstances, only authorised participants may buy and sell the ETC securities directly with the Company. Investors who are not authorised participants (e.g. select financial institutions) can generally only buy or sell the ETC securities on the secondary market (e.g. via a broker on the London Stock Exchange) at the then prevailing market price. The prevailing market price at which the ETC securities trade on the secondary market may deviate from the daily value of the ETC securities and may not accurately reflect the price of the precious metal underlying the ETC securities.
- The relationship between the return on your investment, how it is impacted and the period for which you hold your investment is considered below under "How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?"
- The gold price fluctuates daily and the value of gold is driven by various factors including its rarity, use in industrial processes and its use as an investment commodity. Pricing of precious metals can be impacted by fundamental issues of supply and demand, political and economic situations (especially in precious metal producing countries) and natural disasters. These factors may all affect the value of your investment.
- Your ETC securities are denominated in US dollars, the ETC's base currency.
- The ETC securities are listed and traded in currencies other than the base currency on one or more stock exchanges. The performance of your ETC securities may be affected by this currency difference.

Intended retail investor: The ETC is intended for retail investors with the ability to bear losses up to the amount invested in the ETC. The ETC securities are appropriate for medium to long term investment, though the ETC securities may also be suitable for shorter term exposure (see further below "How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?").

Insurance benefits: The ETC does not offer any insurance benefits.

What happens if iShares Physical Metals plc is unable to pay out?

The underlying precious metal of the ETC is held in safekeeping by the Company's Custodian, JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A. London Branch, and/or sub-custodians (appointed by the Custodian). In the event of the insolvency of the Arranger or Trustee, the ETC's underlying metal in the safekeeping of the Custodian and/or sub-custodians will not be affected. In the event of the insolvency of the Custodian or any sub-custodian, the allocated metal held by the Custodian or any sub-custodian in an "Allocated Account" (which is a segregated account in which metal is held in allocated form) for the benefit of the Company for the ETC should be protected as such metal should be identified separately from the assets of the Custodian, any sub-custodian and their other clients. Compensation will not be available under the UK Financial Services Compensation Scheme or any other scheme in the event of insolvency of the Company, Custodian, sub-custodians, Arranger and/or Trustee.

What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over time: The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- In the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0 % annual return).
- For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.
- USD 10,000 is invested.

| | If you exit after 1 year | If you exit after 5 years |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------|
| Total costs | 12 USD | 93 USD |
| Annual cost Impact (*) | 0.1% | 0.1% |

(*) This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at the recommended holding period your average return per year is projected to be 9.3% before costs and 9.2% after costs.

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the product to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.
